

ESTTA Tracking number: ESTTA461903

Filing date: 03/15/2012

IN THE UNITED STATES PATENT AND TRADEMARK OFFICE
BEFORE THE TRADEMARK TRIAL AND APPEAL BOARD

Proceeding	92046185
Party	Plaintiff Amanda Blackhorse, Marcus Briggs, Phillip Gover, Shquanebin Lone-Bentley, Jillian Pappan, and Courtney Tsotigh
Correspondence Address	JESSE WITTEN DRINKER BIDDLE AND REATH LLP 1500 K STREET NW, SUITE 1100 WASHINGTON, DC 20005-1209 UNITED STATES Jesse.Witten@dbr.com, John.Ferman@dbr.com, Lee.Roach@dbr.com, Stephen.Wallace@dbr.com
Submission	Other Motions/Papers
Filer's Name	Jesse A. Witten
Filer's e-mail	Jesse.Witten@dbr.com, dctrademarks@dbr.com, Jennifer.Criss@dbr.com
Signature	/Jesse A. Witten/
Date	03/15/2012
Attachments	Part 13 of 60 BLA-TTAB-01250 - 01284.pdf (37 pages)(8643810 bytes)

IN THE UNITED STATES PATENT AND TRADEMARK OFFICE
BEFORE THE TRADEMARK TRIAL AND APPEAL BOARD

In re Registration No. 1,606,810 (REDSKINETTES)
Registered July 17, 1990,

Registration No. 1,085,092 (REDSKINS)
Registered February 7, 1978,

Registration No. 987,127 (THE REDSKINS & DESIGN)
Registered June 25, 1974,

Registration No. 986,668 (WASHINGTON REDSKINS & DESIGN)
Registered June 18, 1974,

Registration No. 978,824 (WASHINGTON REDSKINS)
Registered February 12, 1974,

and Registration No. 836,122 (THE REDSKINS—STYLIZED LETTERS)
Registered September 26, 1967

)
Amanda Blackhorse, Marcus Briggs,) Phillip Gover, Jillian Papan, and) Courtney Tsotigh,)
)
Petitioners,)
)
v.)	Cancellation No. 92/046,185
)
Pro-Football, Inc.,)
)
)
Registrant.)
_____)

ATTACHMENT TO PETITIONERS' FIRST NOTICE OF RELIANCE

PART 13 OF 60

BLA-TTAB-01250 – BLA-TTAB-01284

Respectfully Submitted,

/s/Jesse A. Witten
Jesse A. Witten
Jeffrey J. Lopez
John D. V. Ferman
Lee Roach
Stephen J. Wallace
DRINKER, BIDDLE & REATH, LLP
1500 K Street, N.W., Suite 1100
Washington, D.C. 20005
Telephone: (202) 842-8800
Fax: (202) 842-8465
Jesse.Witten@dbr.com
Jeffrey.Lopez@dbr.com
John.Ferman@dbr.com
Lee.Roach@dbr.com
Stephen.Wallace@dbr.com

Counsel for Petitioners

The REDSKIN

MAGAZINE FOR
FOOTBALL FANS

26th Year of Publication in the Nation's Capital
Entered in Library of Congress — Card No. 62-6477

WHO'S AHEAD?

THE OFFENSE AND DEFENSE ARE IN HOT PURSUIT

In football, like a dog chasing its own tail, the offense is always in hot, though circular, pursuit of the defense. Or vice versa. It all depends who looks where and when.

But one thing is certain. The pursuit never ends. And as a result no one game of football ever is quite like another. Like generals maneuvering troops, coaches always are tinkering with their offense or defense or both, hoping to come up with the victory maneuver.

In the early days of football all this maneuvering was coach against coach. Then came the scout. Now, you have coach and staff—anywhere from four to six assistants—scouts, movies and movie exchanges. It all adds up to making it that much tougher to fool the other fellow.

Clark Shaughnessy, one of the most inventive minds the game of football ever has known recently was irked into saying: "Football isn't fun anymore. Everyone is copying everyone else."

In one sense the old Chicago Bears assistant coach is correct: certainly whenever a team comes up with a good play or a good defense the entire National Football League knows about it, in detail, in a matter of days. This is so, primarily because of the movie exchange system, which finds all teams swapping game films.

But in the long run we think Shag is in error. It's unlikely that anyone ever again will bedazzle the football world as Shag and George Halas did in 1939-40 when they invented the modern T-formation. This is the single, most potent offense ever devised in football. And certainly, in its beginning, it gave the offense a tremendous advantage over the defense. In fact, it really started football's great and endless struggle between offense and defense.

Continued on Page 45

The REDSKIN

Official Publication of the Redskins
Redskin Building, Washington, D. C.
District 7-6140

President: George P. Marshall
Vice-President: Milton W. King
Assistant to the President: C. Leo DeOrsey

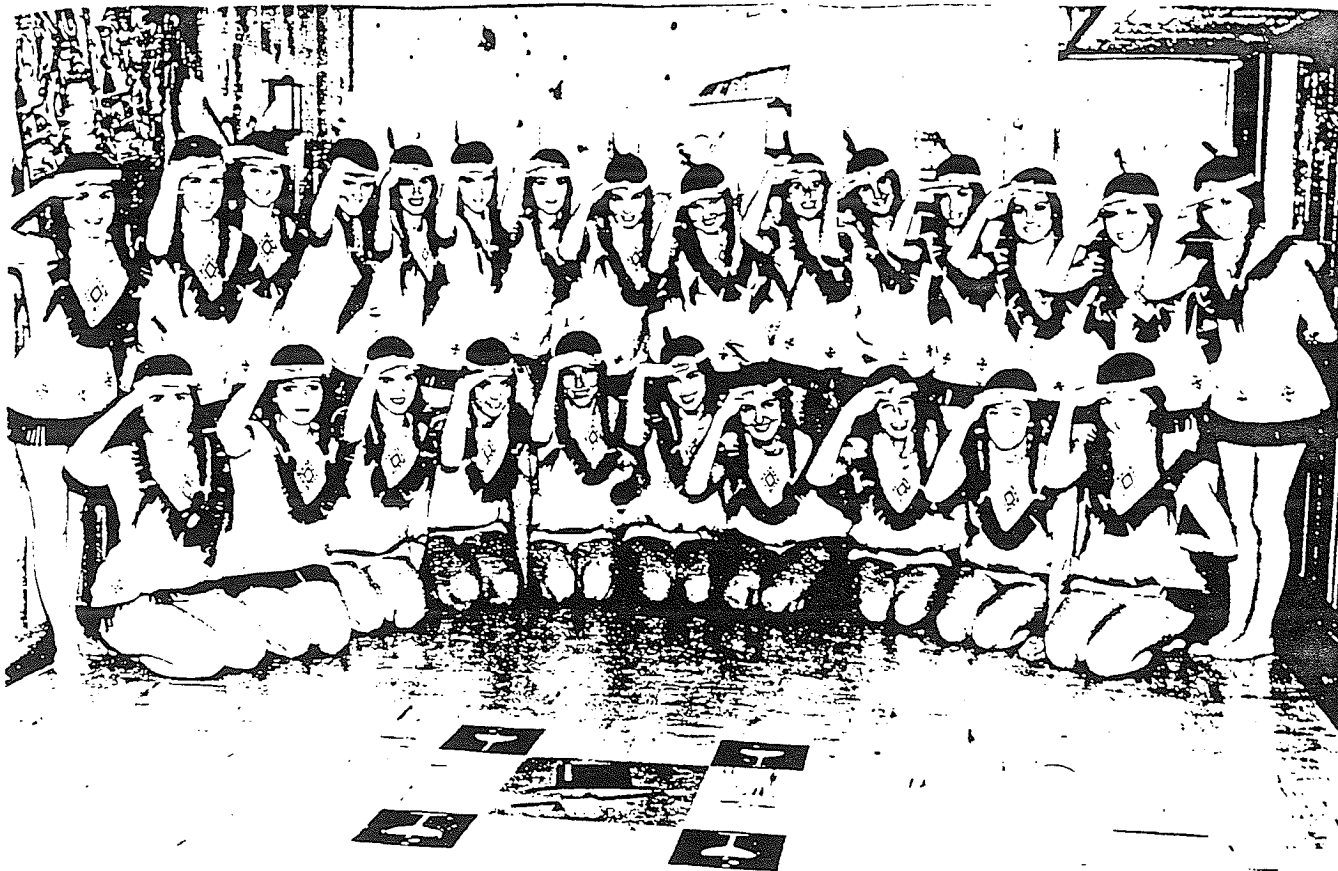

DIRECTORS

George P. Marshall, Chairman
C. Leo DeOrsey Milton W. King
E. Bennett Williams Jack Kent Cooke
William Shea Gene Archer

IN THIS ISSUE . . .

	PAGE
The Redskinettes	3
On the Warpath	5
Busy Line	11
Meet the new Redskins	32
NFL Games Today	42
Our Football Day	53

Harjo, et al. v.
Pro-Football, Inc.
Case No. 21,069
Petitioners' Ex.

Girls! Girls! Girls!

AREN'T THEY SOMETHIN' . . .

Except for a few boos in Baltimore a couple of years back—and they were delivered more in envy than dislike—The Redskins Band has marched for 25 long and wonderful years as the toast of the Redskins, of the city of Washington and the entire National Football League.

They were somethin' when the National Football League was young and a little shy of somethin'.

They are still somethin' today.

Though we must admit somethin's been added—GIRLS.

Ain't it wonderful. And why did it take so long?

Anyhow, better late than never. It must be admitted that the Band also showed the proper touch of irony once the decision was made—to add the girls that is. The Band stole over to Baltimore and kidnaped Doris Snyder from the Colts. Doris was the lady who had acted as head majorette for the Colts and had done all their choreography.

This event certainly ranks as one of the Redskins great steals.

Since arriving in Washington Doris has been working long hours with the girls, who she has named the Redskinettes. Not that anyone could find that name in Indian lore but Doris just had to have a word with "ettes" on the end of it. So it's the Redskinettes.

Doris insists things are far from perfect—that it may even take a couple of years to make the Redskinettes a real, big part of the Band. But you'll see the GIRLS TODAY! Marching at the head of the Band in their spanking, new Indian costumes. Then, of course they'll lead cheers from the sidelines.

And while there still might be much to do—as Doris says—we think you'll agree WHAT'S BEEN DONE IS WONDERFUL.

THE REDSKINETTES ARE REALLY SOMETHIN'.

COMING ATTRACTIONS

Next Sunday, when the Redskins entertain the Los Angeles Rams, has been designated—NORTH CAROLINA DAY. It's another in the long and famous Redskin Days for Dixie and thousands of Tarheel Redskin rooters will journey to Washington along with the Honorable Terry Sanford, Governor of North Carolina, to celebrate the event.

To make things more enjoyable for everyone, the Redskins Band, Singers, Redskinettes—the whole gang featuring the solo baritone of Gene Archer will stage an oldtime minstrel show at midfield.

Come one, come all . . .

ON THE

WARPATH

A look at

next week's game...

LONG TIME NO SEE

The explosive, unpredictable, star-studded Los Angeles Rams come to D. C. Stadium next Sunday. It will mark Los Angeles first visit to Washington since November of 1951. Eleven years between games—that's a football lifetime.

Not a single Redskins player or coach who will face the Rams next Sunday took part in that 1951 game in old Griffith Stadium. The same can be said for the Rams—almost. The head coach of the Rams, Bob Waterfield, and general manager Elroy Hirsch both played in 1951, and how. Waterfield, the all pro quarterback of the 1951 world champion Rams twice passed to Hirsch in the fourth period for touchdowns. As great as they were that afternoon, Waterfield and Hirsch couldn't stop the Redskins and an elderly gentleman of the time, named Sammy Baugh.

That tremendous upset of the Rams, the final score was 31-21, was Baugh's last great game as a Redskin. Sam had other fine moments before he retired after 16 years of play, at the end of the 1952 season. But the defeat of the Rams—who went on to become world champions—that was Sam's last great hour. And one of the greatest in Redskins history.

The Rams, with their famed Bull Elephant backfield—Tank Younger, Deacon Dan Towler and Dick Hoerner scored first. But from then on it was all Baugh, Dudley, Taylor, Gilmer and Goode as the Redskins scored five times before Waterfield started his belated passing attack to Hirsch which proved too little and too late.

Next Sunday? The casts may have changed but another whinging is expected. For while the Rams visits to Washington have been few and far between—the Redskins and Rams are old foes. For 17 consecutive years these teams met in the most famous pre-season football game in the National League—the Los Angeles Times Charities Game.

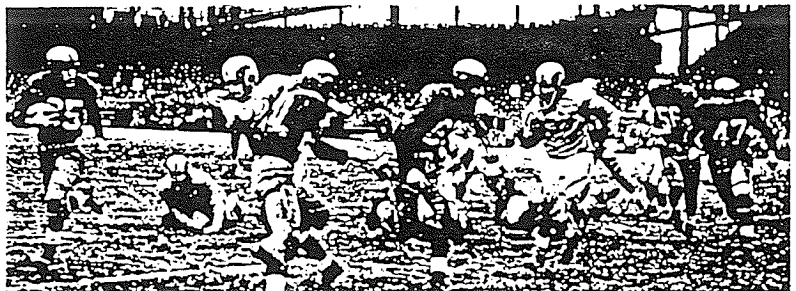

We mention the Times game because in 1951 the Rams dished out the most lopsided defeat in the series to the Redskins, 59-14, only to lose three months later in the all-important league game. Last August in the Times finale, the Rams were once again on the rough side, whipping the Redskins 37-7. Now they meet again in league play just as in 1951, with the same result—we hope. Like their famed 1951 team, the present Rams are the exponents of the sensational scoring play. In Zeke Bratkowski they have a fine veteran quarterback and in Carroll Dale and Jim Phillips two ends who can go and grab that ball. Jon Arnett, one of the game's finest broken field runners heads a potent backfield that includes Dick Bass, Ollie Mattson, Pervis Atkins and Art Perkins. Not to mention two of the games top rookie quarterbacks—Roman Gabriel and Ron Miller.

As the man said: "it should be an interesting afternoon!"

The Redskins defense was pretty rough on that cold November afternoon 11 years ago. Above, three famous ex-Redskins close in on Rams fullback Dick Hoerner, No. 31. That's Harry Gilmer about to make the tackle, while his two teammates hurrying in to help out are No. 53, Al Demao and No. 36, Chuck Drazenovich.

When the Redskins went on the warpath against the Rams in 1951 it was Sammy Baugh doing the passing and Bill Dudley, shown above, doing most of the running.

SIGNALS

ON!

Some anecdotes about the tribe and their doings

The Redskins Alumni Association has grown of age. The final proof, if any was really needed, was the Welcome Home luncheon the Alumni tended the Team at the Statler on the 21st.

Founded in 1958 by former Redskins players who now make their homes in the Washington area, the Redskins Alumni now numbers 26 active members. There are also a dozen honorary members and some fifty associate members. The basic aim of the club—to help the present Redskins in almost every way possible.

Not only in outright fan support but also to find homes, off-season employment etc. In other words, to help make our present players proud to be Redskins, and perhaps.

to help make them future residents of our town.

Certainly the Welcome Home luncheon was a terrific morale booster to today's players. For many, it was their first contact with the Redskin tradition—a tradition of proud men, men who were proud to be Redskins in other days and are proud of the Redskins name today.

The luncheon proved it. It was a smooth and polished production, which was a tribute to chairman Al Demao and all his helpers. Jim Gibbons was the MC and he was as funny as he was brief. No commercials.

Dick McCann, an honorary member of the Redskins Alumni and the Director of the National Professional Football Hall of Fame gave a short talk, as did Mr. Robert Levi, president of The Hecht Co. who presented halfback Dick James with the Hecht Co. Trophy and Award as the Redskins Player of the Year for 1961.

Then Coach Bill McPeak introduced the squad to all the guests jammed into the Statler's Presidential Room. Redskins President George Preston Marshall closed out the luncheon with a short "Thank

Mr. Marshall leads Alumni, team and friends in Hail to the Redskins.

You" speech and everyone, players, guests and Alumni joined in singing "Hail to the Redskins."

The Hecht Co. Trophy which was presented to Dick James at the Wel-

THE REDSKINS SHOW STAFF

JOEL MARGOLIS

Producer

CHARLES CLIFF

Musical Director

GENE ARCHER

Soloist

THOMAS WRIGHT, JR.

Band Master

NOBLE BARNES

Associate Conductor

RAYMAND GICKER

Personnel Director

ROD BARNES

Drum Major

MYER BROWDY

Wardrobe

FRANCIS KETTNER

Council Chief

RAY MICHAEL

Public Address

A. A. CHILDS and RAY RAUM

Sound

CHEER LEADERS

DORIS SNYDER

Director

ANN BITTENBENDER

Assistant Director

MARY LU BUCCI

Assistant Director

DONNA BERLEIN

Secretary

all shows under the supervision of

GEORGE PRESTON MARSHALL

TEEPEE TALK—

Some Interesting News Notes, from the Inside...

Like all other teams in the National Football League the Redskins were delighted with the election of Canton, Ohio, as the home of the new but long awaited National Professional Football Hall of Fame.

Delight gave way to sheer shock, however, when one of their own was the first to enter the Hall—and not Sammy Baugh, though Sam will certainly make it at a later date—but their own non-playing former General manager Dick McCann.

After sixteen years with the Redskins, Dick looked like a cinch to break Baugh's all-time 16 year longevity record. But bids to the Hall of Fame come only once and Dick just had to answer the call—to become the HALL OF FAME's first DIRECTOR.

On Dick's shoulders will fall the full burden of creating a dream into a real, living dream. A national professional Hall of Fame all football players and fans will be proud to visit and honor.

It's a tremendous task. One that demands a giant in the field—a man who knows and appreciates the game of football, past and present, and one who has the ability to decide between the great and near-great; the historical and the legend.

A TRULY BIG JOB.

We are humbly honored that the board of directors of the Hall of Fame turned to the Redskins and tapped Dick McCann for the task. We hated to see Dick leave but fully recognize that no one could do the big job that must be done in a bigger or better way.

Vince Promuto and Bob Toneff are the Redskins 1962 co-captains. For the third straight year, Toneff will lead the defensive platoon, while this marks the first time that Promuto will head the offense.

Toneff, one of the game's truly great tackles has been an All-Pro every year since coming to the Redskins in 1959. Promuto, starting his third season of play, is one of the most highly touted young linemen in the NFL and his selection as offensive captain earmarks him for future ALL-PRO honors.

This is the first time in 20 years that the Redskins have had a brother act. Cecil and Ray Hare played for the champion Redskins back in the early '40s. Now Ed Khayat and

Dick McCann, former general manager of the Redskins and now the director of the Professional Football Hall of Fame at Canton, Ohio shakes hands with an old friend, Lewis F. Atchison of the Star, following Lewis' election as the Washington area representative to the Hall of Fame's national selection board.

Bob Khayat are teamed together in the '60s.

Both Hare boys played at the same college. Gonzaga and both were backs, but not so with the Khayat's. Eddie played at Tulane; Bob at Mississippi; but both are linemen. Bob, however, is most noted for his field goal kicking ability. He hasn't missed a point-after-touchdown as a Redskin.

If you think the Redskins Band has an extra flourish this year you are 100 percent correct. Six herald trumpets have been added to the band for just that purpose—an added flourish.

Three numbers have been permanently retired by the Redskins: No. 33, worn for 16 years by Sammy Baugh; No. 35, worn by two great stars of yesterday—Wilbur Moore and Bill Dudley; and No. 44, worn by Andy Farkas.

TWO PLACES TO DINE
AT HOME AND THE

Roma
Restaurant

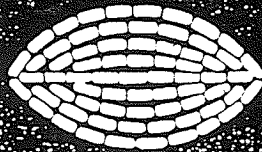

WASHINGTON'S FINEST
ITALIAN & AMERICAN
RESTAURANT

3419 CONN. AVENUE, N.W.

Dining under the stars in our summer garden

FREE PARKING • EM 3-6611

A black and white illustration of a Native American headdress. The central element is a large, circular feather band, possibly made of wood or bone, with a series of small, dark, rectangular pieces attached to its outer edge. A long, dark feather is attached to the center of the band, extending downwards. A small, dark, rectangular object, possibly a piece of wood or bone, is attached to the bottom of the band. The entire headdress is set against a dark, textured background.

cardinals

TAX INCLUDED 5

Conducts The Band

Mr. Charles Cliff will pick up the baton laid down by the late Eddie Pierce, and lead the famed Redskins marching band this year.

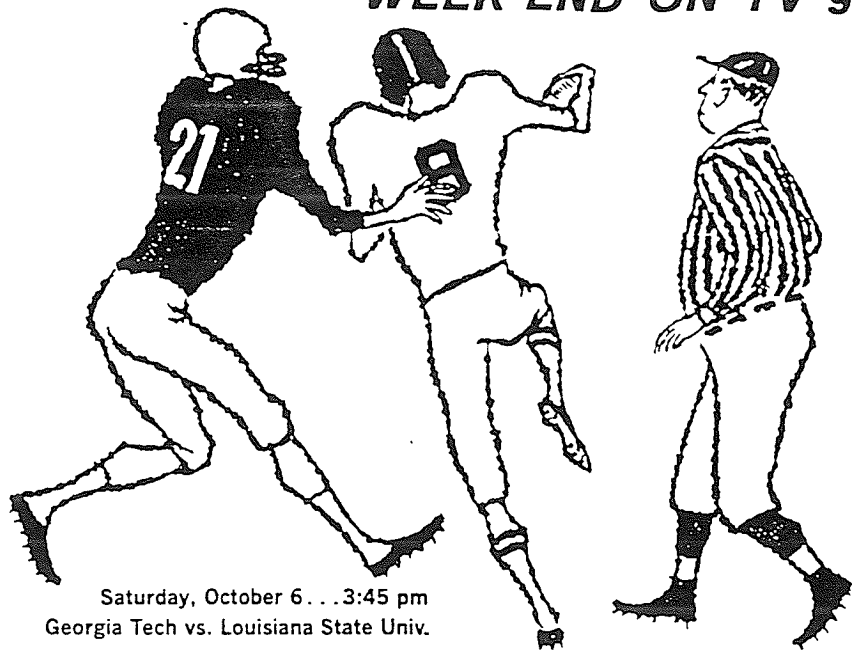

Charlie is well trained and well recommended for the task. He not only is a private music teacher of renown but also teaches at Catholic University and at the U.S. Naval School of Music, as well.

Around the Washington area, Charlie is known as a composer almost as well as he is a conductor. In both fields his range of ability runs from jazz to symphonies.

Some of his compositions have been performed by both the National Symphony and the Cleveland Symphony.

As a conductor he has been featured for fifteen years on the National Broadcasting System and has directed many of the shows in the National Theater.

WEEK-END ON TV 9

Saturday, October 6... 3:45 pm
Georgia Tech vs. Louisiana State Univ.

Saturday, October 13... 1:45 pm
Penn State vs. Army

Sunday, October 14... 2:00 pm
Wash. Redskins vs. St. Louis Cardinals

Saturday, October 20... 4:15 pm
Univ. of Oregon vs. Air Force Academy

Sunday, October 21... 1:30 pm
Wash. Redskins vs. Philadelphia Eagles

Saturday, October 27... 2:15 pm
Univ. of Wisconsin vs. Ohio State University

Sunday, October 28... 2:00 pm
Washington Redskins vs. New York Giants

Saturday, November 3... 1:15 pm
Notre Dame vs. Navy

Saturday, November 10... 1:15 pm
Purdue Univ. vs. Michigan State University

Saturday, November 17... 1:15 pm
Princeton University vs. Yale University

Sunday, November 18... 2:00 pm
Wash. Redskins vs. Pittsburgh Steelers

Thursday, November 22... 12:00 noon
Green Bay Packers vs. Detroit Lions

Thursday, November 22... 2:45 pm
University of Texas vs. Texas A. & M.

Saturday, November 24... 1:15 pm
Univ. of Michigan vs. Ohio State University

Saturday, December 1... 1:15 pm
Army vs. Navy

Saturday, December 8... 1:30 pm
Washington Redskins vs. Baltimore Colts

Saturday, December 8... 4:15 pm
UCLA vs. University of Syracuse

Sunday, December 9... 2:00 pm
Cleveland Browns vs. New York Giants

Saturday, December 15... 4:30 pm
Cleveland Browns vs. San Francisco 49'ers

And be sure to see...

- "College Football Preview" with Bill McColgan immediately preceding the NCAA games on TV 9.
- "College Football Scoreboard" immediately following the NCAA games on TV 9.
- "Tom Nugent Show" with highlights of the University of Maryland games every Sunday at 1:00-1:30 pm on TV 9.
- "Pro Football Kickoff" preceding the NFL games on TV 9.
- "Pre-Game News Conference" with coach Bill McPeak immediately preceding the Redskins games on TV 9.

Harjo, et al. v.
Pro-Football, Inc.
Case No. 21,069
Petitioners' Ex.

WTOP-TV
at Broadcast House

Page 49

The REDSKIN

MAGAZINE FOR FOOTBALL FANS

26th Year of Publication in the Nation's Capital
Entered in Library of Congress - Card No. 62-6477

WHO'S AHEAD?

THE OFFENSE AND DEFENSE ARE IN HOT PURSUIT

In football, like a dog chasing its own tail, the offense is always in hot, though circular, pursuit of the defense. Or vice versa. It all depends who looks where and when.

But one thing is certain. The pursuit never ends. And as a result no one game of football ever is quite like another. Like generals maneuvering troops, coaches always are tinkering with their offense or defense or both, hoping to come up with the victory maneuver.

In the early days of football all this maneuvering was coach against coach. Then came the scout. Now, you have coach and staff—anywhere from four to six assistants—scouts, movies and movie exchanges. It all adds up to making it that much tougher to fool the other fellow.

Clark Shaughnessy, one of the most inventive minds the game of football ever has known recently was irked into saying: "Football isn't fun anymore. Everyone is copying everyone else."

In one sense the old Chicago Bears assistant coach is correct: certainly whenever a team comes up with a good play or a good defense the entire National Football League knows about it, in detail, in a matter of days. This is so, primarily because of the movie exchange system, which finds all teams swapping game films.

But in the long run we think Shag is in error. It's unlikely that anyone ever again will bedazzle the football world as Shag and George Halas did in 1939-40 when they invented the modern T-formation. This is the single, most potent offense ever devised in football. And certainly, in its beginning, it gave the offense a tremendous advantage over the defense. In fact, it really started football's great and endless struggle between offense and defense.

Continued on Page 45

The REDSKIN

Official Publication of the Redskins
Redskin Building, Washington, D. C.
District 7-6140

President: George P. Marshall

Vice-President: Milton W. King

Assistant to the President: C. Leo DeOrsey

DIRECTORS

George P. Marshall, Chairman

C. Leo DeOrsey, Milton W. King

E. Bennett Williams, Jack Kent Cooke

William Shea, Gene Archer

IN THIS ISSUE

	PAGE
The Redskins Meet	3
On the Warpath	5
Busy Line	11
Meet the new Redskins	32
NFL Games Today	42
Our Football Day	53

NFL
national football league

ILLUSTRATED

Harjo, et al. v.
Pro-Football, Inc.
Case No. 21,069
Petitioners' Ex.

S_0003674

Girls! Girls! Girls!

AREN'T THEY SOMETHIN' . . .

Except for a few boos in Baltimore a couple of years back—and they were delivered more in envy than dislike—The Redskins Band has marched for 25 long and wonderful years as the toast of the Redskins, of the city of Washington and the entire National Football League.

They were somethin' when the National Football League was young and a little shy of somethin'.

They are still somethin' today.

Though we must admit somethin's been added—GIRLS.

Ain't it wonderful. And why did it take so long?

Anyhow, better late than never. It must be admitted that the Band also showed the proper touch of irony once the decision was made—to add the girls that is. The Band stole over to Baltimore and kidnaped Doris Snyder from the Colts. Doris was the lady who had acted as head majorette for the Colts and had done all their choreography.

This event certainly ranks as one of the Redskins great steals.

Since arriving in Washington Doris has been working long hours with the girls, who she has named the Redskinettes. Not that anyone could find that name in Indian lore but Doris just had to have a word with "ettes" on the end of it. So it's the Redskinettes.

Doris insists things are far from perfect—that it may even take a couple of years to make the Redskinettes a real, big part of the Band. But you'll see the GIRLS TODAY! Marching at the head of the Band in their spanking, new Indian costumes. Then, of course they'll lead cheers from the sidelines.

And while there still might be much to do—as Doris says—we think you'll agree WHAT'S BEEN DONE IS WONDERFUL.

THE REDSKINETTES ARE REALLY SOMETHIN'.

COMING ATTRACTIONS

Next Sunday, when the Redskins entertain the Los Angeles Rams, has been designated—NORTH CAROLINA DAY. It's another in the long and famous Redskin Days for Dixie and thousands of Tarheel Redskin rooters will journey to Washington along with the Honorable Terry Sanford, Governor of North Carolina, to celebrate the event.

To make things more enjoyable for everyone, the Redskins Band, Singers, Redskinettes—the whole gang featuring the solo baritone of Gene Archer will stage an oldtime minstrel show at midfield.

Come one, come all . . .

ON THE

WARPATH

A look at

next week's game...

LONG TIME NO SEE

The explosive, unpredictable, star-studded Los Angeles Rams come to D. C. Stadium next Sunday. It will mark Los Angeles first visit to Washington since November of 1951. Eleven years between games—that's a football lifetime.

Not a single Redskins player or coach who will face the Rams next Sunday took part in that 1951 game in old Griffith Stadium. The same can be said for the Rams—almost. The head coach of the Rams, Bob Waterfield, and general manager Elroy Hirsch both played in 1951, and how. Waterfield, the all pro quarterback of the 1951 world champion Rams twice passed to Hirsch in the fourth period for touchdowns. As great as they were that afternoon, Waterfield and Hirsch couldn't stop the Redskins and an elderly gentleman of the time, named Sammy Baugh.

That tremendous upset of the Rams, the final score was 31-21, was Baugh's last great game as a Redskin. Sam had other fine moments before he retired after 16 years of play, at the end of the 1952 season. But the defeat of the Rams—who went on to become world champions—that was Sam's last great hour. And one of the greatest in Redskins history.

The Rams, with their famed Bull Elephant backfield—Tank Younger, Deacon Dan Towler and Dick Hoerner scored first. But from then on it was all Baugh, Dudley, Taylor, Gilmer and Goode as the Redskins scored five times before Waterfield started his belated passing attack to Hirsch which proved too little and too late.

Next Sunday? The casts may have changed but another whingding is expected. For while the Rams visits to Washington have been few and far between—the Redskins and Rams are old foes. For 17 consecutive years these teams met in the most famous pre-season football game in the National League—the Los Angeles Times Charities Game.

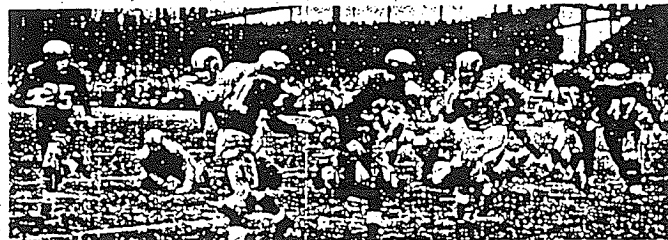

We mention the Times game because in 1951 the Rams dished out the most lopsided defeat in the series to the Redskins, 59-14, only to lose three months later in the all-important league game. Last August in the Times finale, the Rams were once again on the rough side, whipping the Redskins 37-7. Now they meet again in league play just as in 1951, with the same result—we hope. Like their famed 1951 team, the present Rams are the exponents of the sensational scoring play. In Zeke Bratkowski they have a fine veteran quarterback and in Carroll Dale and Jim Phillips two ends who can go and grab that ball. Jon Arnett, one of the game's finest broken field runners heads a potent backfield that includes Dick Bass, Ollie Mattson, Pervis Atkins and Art Perkins. Not to mention two of the games top rookie quarterbacks — Roman Gabriel and Ron Miller.

As the man said: "it should be an interesting afternoon!"

The Redskins defense was pretty rough on that cold November afternoon 11 years ago. Above, three famous ex-Redskins close in on Rams fullback Dick Hoerner, No. 31. That's Harry Gilmer about to make the tackle, while his two teammates hurring in to help out are No. 53, Al Demao and No. 36, Chuck Drazanovich.

When the Redskins went on the warpath against the Rams in 1951, it was Sammy Baugh doing the passing and Bill Dudley, shown above, doing most of the running.

TEEPEE TALK—

*Some Interesting News
Notes, from the Inside...*

Like all other teams in the National Football League the Redskins were delighted with the election of Canton, Ohio, as the home of the new but long awaited National Professional Football Hall of Fame.

Delight gave way to sheer shock, however, when one of their own was the first to enter the Hall—and not Sammy Baugh, though Sam will certainly make it at a later date—but their own non-playing former General manager Dick McCann.

After sixteen years with the Redskins, Dick looked like a cinch to break Baugh's all-time 16 year longevity record. But bids to the Hall of Fame come only once and Dick just had to answer the call—to become the HALL OF FAME's first DIRECTOR.

On Dick's shoulders will fall the full burden of creating a dream into a real, living dream. A national professional Hall of Fame all football players and fans will be proud to visit and honor.

It's a tremendous task. One that demands a giant in the field—a man who knows and appreciates the game of football, past and present, and one who has the ability to decide between the great and near-great; the historical and the legend.

A TRULY BIG JOB.

We are humbly honored that the board of directors of the Hall of Fame turned to the Redskins and tapped Dick McCann for the task. We hated to see Dick leave but fully recognize that no one could do the big job that must be done in a bigger or better way.

Vince Promuto and Bob Toneff are the Redskins 1962 co-captains. For the third straight year, Toneff will lead the defensive platoon, while this marks the first time that Promuto will head the offense.

Toneff, one of the game's truly great tackles has been an All-Pro every year since coming to the Redskins in 1959. Promuto, starting his third season of play, is one of the most highly touted young linemen in the NFL and his selection as offensive captain earmarks him for future ALL-PRO honors.

This is the first time in 20 years that the Redskins have had a brother act. Cecil and Ray Hare played for the champion Redskins back in the early '40s. Now Ed Khayat and

Dick McCann, former general manager of the Redskins and now the director of the Professional Football Hall of Fame at Canton, Ohio shakes hands with an old friend, Lewis F. Atchison of the Star, following Lewis' election as the Washington area representative to the Hall of Fame's national selection board.

Bob Khayat are teamed together in the '60s.

Both Hare boys played at the same college, Gonzaga and both were backs, but not so with the Khayat's. Eddie played at Tulane; Bob at Mississippi; but both are linemen. Bob, however, is most noted for his field goal kicking ability. He hasn't missed a point-after-touchdown as a Redskin.

If you think the Redskins Band has an extra flourish this year you are 100 percent correct. Six herald trumpets have been added to the band for just that purpose—an added flourish.

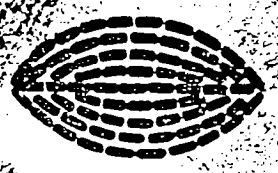

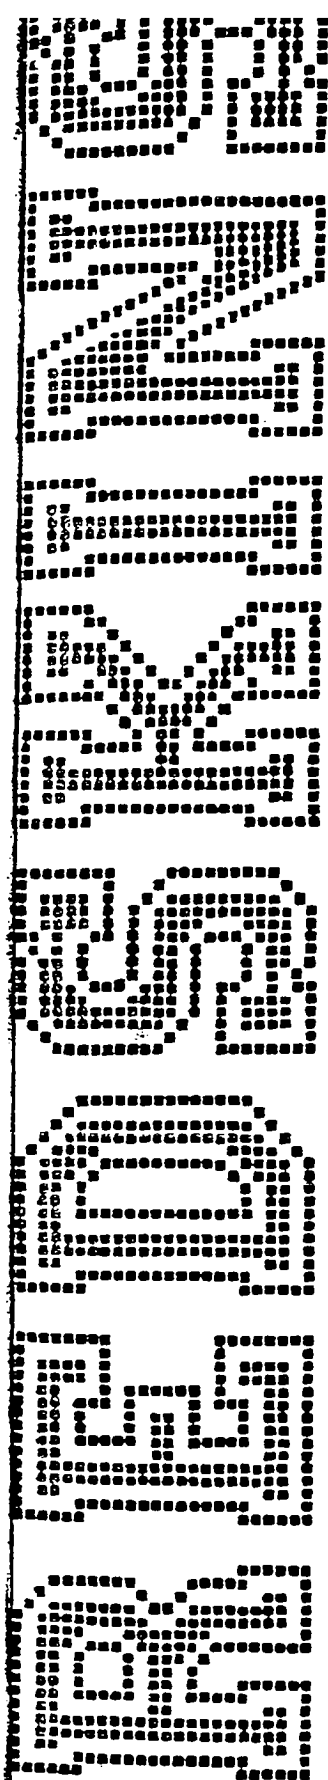

Three numbers have been permanently retired by the Redskins: No. 33, worn for 16 years by Sammy Baugh; No. 35, worn by two great stars of yesterday—Wilbur Moore and Bill Dudley; and No. 44, worn by Andy Farkas.

TWO PLACES TO DINE
AT HOME AND THE Roma
Restaurant
WASHINGTON'S FINEST
ITALIAN & AMERICAN
RESTAURANT

3419 CONN. AVENUE, N.W.

Dining under the stars in our
summer garden

FREE PARKING • EM 3-6611

Harjo, et al. v.
Pro-Football, Inc.
Case No. 21,069
Petitioners' Ex.

OCTOBER 7, 1962 TAX INCLUDED 50c

29.028

0001692

The REDSKIN

MAGAZINE FOR FOOTBALL FANS

26th Year of Publication in the Nation's Capital
Entered in Library of Congress — Card No. 62-6477

SNEAD TO MITCHELL

REDSKINS PASSING COMBO DAZZLES FANS AND FOES

Since the birth of modern National League football in 1932 all great teams have had one point in common—a passing combination that was a scoring threat on every play from any spot on the field.

No team, in fact, ever has won a National Football League title without such a combination. Look at the roll call: Herber to Hutson; Luckman to Kavanaugh; Baugh to Millner; Layne to Walker; Waterfield to Benton; Thompson to Pihos; Graham to Lavelli; Christman to Kutner; Conerly to Rote; Unitas to Moore; Van Brocklin to Hirsch; Jurgensen to McDonald; Tittle to Shofner and Starr to Dowler to mention just a few.

Just name your team and the first thing to come to mind will be its passing combination.

Just as this passing combo is the most vital part of any offense so also is it the hardest to come by. Just look at the toll of quarterbacks who have enjoyed great college reputations only to fall by the wayside in the National Football League.

Then add on the toll of receivers.

NFL teams have spent more money, more time and more effort searching for that "great" passing combination and suffered more frustration and failure than in all other phases of the game put together.

The Redskins story is the rule rather than the exception. From the fading days of Sammy Baugh in 1951 until this year the Redskins have been searching for that winning combo. In all those years the only bright spot was the Eddie Le Baron-Johnny Carson team which was good but not great.

NOW, ALMOST OVERNIGHT, THE REDSKINS HAVE UNCOVERED THE MOST SENSATIONAL PASSING COMBINATION TO HIT THE NATIONAL FOOTBALL LEAGUE IN YEARS—SNEAD TO MITCHELL.

How did it happen?

Redskins Coach Bill McPeak has all the

Continued on Page 45

The REDSKIN

Official Publication of the Redskins
Redskin Building, Washington, D. C.
District 7-6140

President: George P. Marshall
Vice-President: Milton W. King
Assistant to the President: C. Leo DeOrsey

DIRECTORS

George P. Marshall, Chairman
C. Leo DeOrsey Milton W. King
E. Bennett Williams Jack Kent Cooke
Gene Archer

IN THIS ISSUE . . .

	PAGE
After the Game was Over	3
NFL Games Today	24
Quarterbacks Work While They Play	32, 33
Redskin Leaders	38
NFL Games Today	42
Our Football Day	53

national football league

I
L
L
U
S
T
R
A
T
E
D

0001693

BLA-TTAB-01262

Making the BIGGEST GAINS in Washington

BRIGGS'
ICE CREAM

Briggs'

BRIGGS'
HOT
DOGS

DANCING INDIANS

Here are the Redskinettes all decked out in their Indian garb and carrying Burgundy and Gold pom-poms. The girls were THE entertainment hit in their debut last Sunday.

Page 15

0001694

BLA-TTAB-01263

NORTH CAROLINA DAY

*Minstrel Show Honors
Our Tarheel Fans*

The Precisionists

Cass & Desi

DANCING DELIGHTS

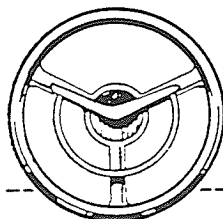

Gene Archer

(Soloists)

Banjo Triplets

November 4 Musical Salute to George Gershwin

*When you're behind the wheel...
Call all your signals !*

Drive Safely and Stay A Winner

*D. C. Department
of Motor Vehicles
in cooperation with*

EATON

NOW: 610 H Street, Northeast
Washington, D. C. LI 7-1400

COMING SOON, A New Location:
6th & Florida Avenue, Northeast

Making the BIGGEST GAINS in Washington

BRIGGS' ICE CREAM

Briggs'

BRIGGS' HOT DOGS

DANCING INDIANS

Here are the Redskinsettes all decked out in their Indian garb and carrying Burgundy and Gold pom-poms. The girls were THE entertainment hit in their debut last Sunday.

Page 15

Harjo, et al. v.
Pro-Football, Inc.
Case No. 21,069
Petitioners' Ex.

S_0003684

29.029

Mid-field Matinee . . .

NORTH CAROLINA DAY

*Minstrel Show Honors
Our Tarheel Fans*

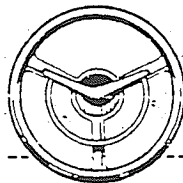

The Precisionists

—★—
Cass & Desi
DANCING DELIGHTS

—★—
Gene Archer
(Soloists)

—★—
Banjo Triplets

November 4 Musical Salute to George Gershwin

*When you're behind the wheel...
Call all your signals !*

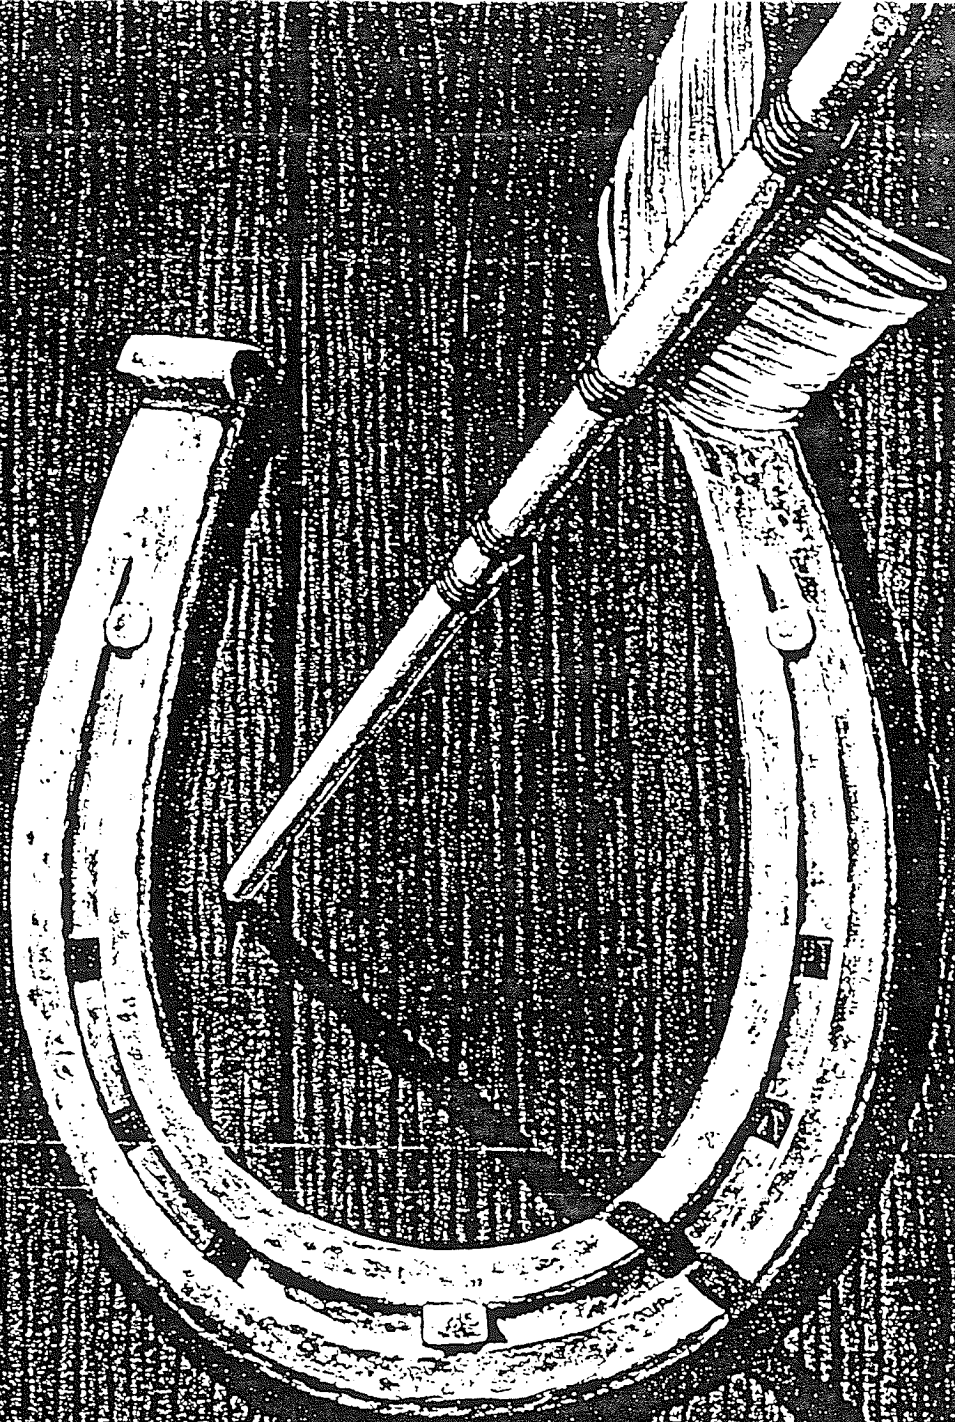

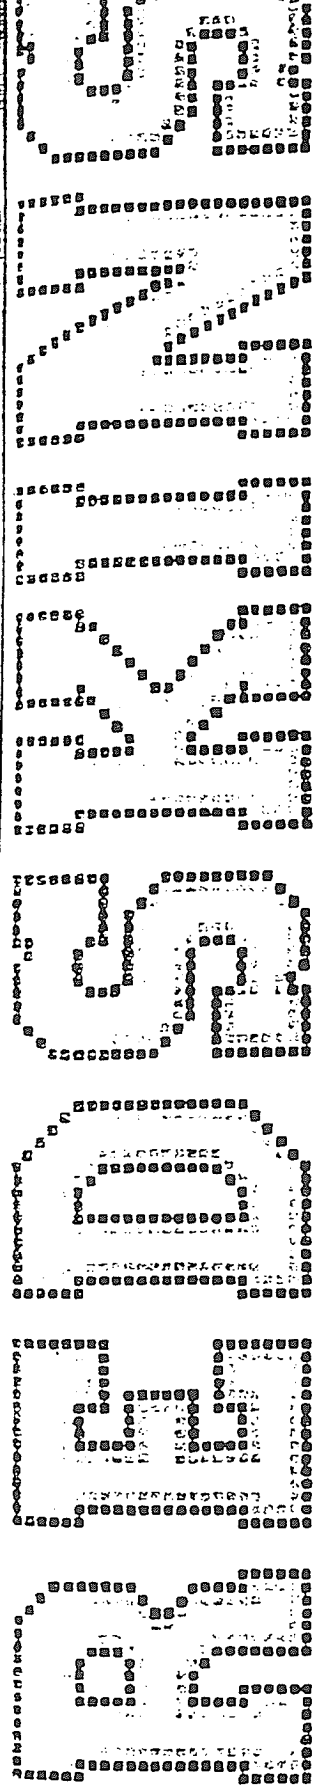

Drive Safely and Stay A Winner

D. C. Department
of Motor Vehicles
in cooperation with

EATON

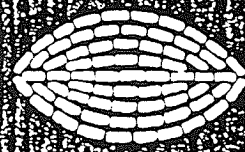

NOW: 610 H Street, Northeast
Washington, D. C. LI 7-1400

COMING SOON, A New Location:
6th & Florida Avenue, Northeast

Harjo, et al. v.
Pro-Football, Inc.
Case No. 21,069
Petitioners' Ex.

29.030

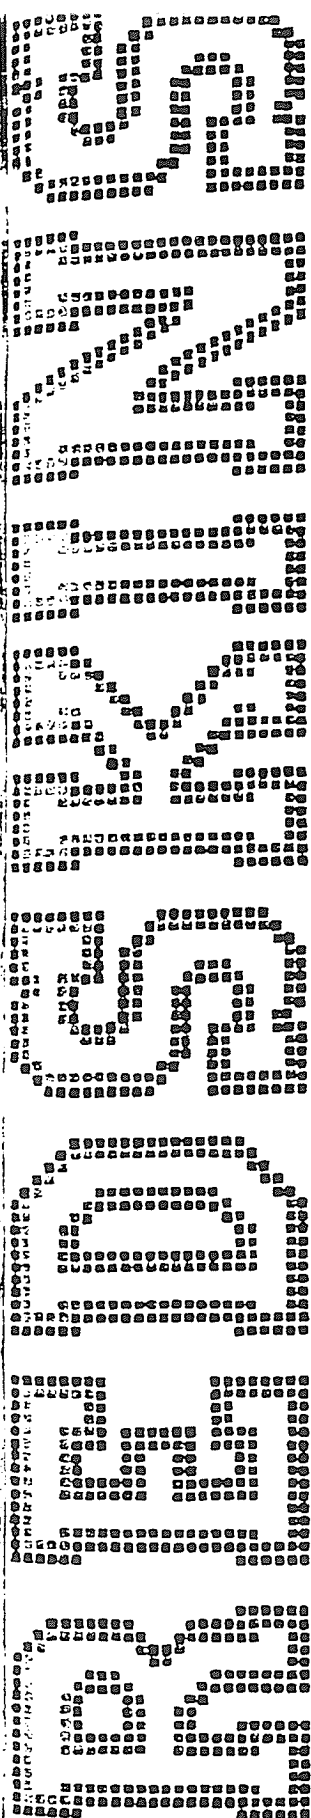

cowboys

NOVEMBER 4, 1962

TAX INCLUDED 50

0001696

BLA-TTAB-01267

POPPERS

NOVEMBER 11, 1962

Harjo, et al. v.
Pro-Football, Inc.
Case No. 21,069
Petitioners' Ex.

TAX INCLUDED 50c

29.031

0001698

NOVEMBER 25, 1962 • TAX INCLUDED 50c

S_0003688

COMPLETE
YOUR TRAVEL ARRANGEMENTS
 AIRLINE TICKETS • STEAMSHIP TICKETS • RAILWAY TICKETS
 TOURS • CRUISES • HOTEL ACCOMMODATIONS • CAR RENTALS
FUGAZY
 TRAVEL BUREAU, INC.
 1725 "K" Street, N.W. • WASHINGTON 6, D. C. • FE. 3-8030

OFFICIAL TRAVEL AGENT FOR THE WASHINGTON REDSKINS

Midfield Matinee — The Redskins Proudly Present

THE REDSKINS MARCHING BAND
THE REDSKINETTES

KAHN-OPPENHEIMER, INC.

OFFERS WASHINGTON'S FINEST

SELECTION OF DIAMONDS, WATCHES,
 SILVERWARE, AND JEWELRY

A store you can depend upon for top quality, superb styling,
 and the greatest savings.

917 F STREET, N. W.

Our Only Location

RE. 7-2075

RE. 7-9823

Convenient
 Payment Plans
 Select For Christmas Now

Third Generation

Be-Wise! Select Your Jewelry
 from a reliable experienced jeweler.

Hail to the Redskins!

This is the official song of the Redskins. It's lyrics were written by Corinne Griffith and the music by Barney Brodsky. It is published by Lee Feltz, Inc. Sheet music and recordings are available in all major music and radio stores.

HAIL TO THE REDSKINS: Hail Vic-to-ry,
 Braves on the war-path, Fight for old D. C.
 Scalp 'em, swamp 'em.
 We will take 'em big score.
 Read 'em, weep 'em.

Touch-down we want heap more.
 Fight on, Fight on till you have won.
 Sons of Wash-ing-ton (Rah! Rah! Rah!)
 HAIL TO THE REDSKINS, Hail Vic-to-ry.
 Braves on the war-path, Fight for old D. C.

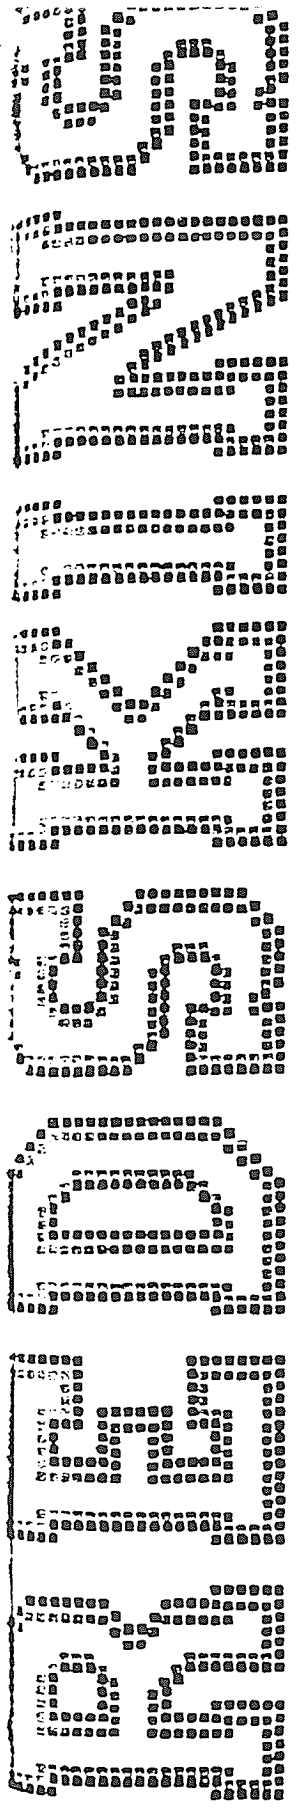

Larimer's

DISTRIBUTORS FOR S. S. PIERCE CO.
 OF BOSTON

FOODS • WINES • LIQUORS IMPORTED AND DOMESTIC GROCERIES

PRIME N. Y. BEEF
 FANCY FRUITS AND VEGETABLES

1727 CONNECTICUT AVENUE
 DEcalur 2-3366 • 2-1766

Harjo, et al. v.
Pro-Football, Inc.
Case No. 21,069
Petitioners' Ex.

29.033

eagles

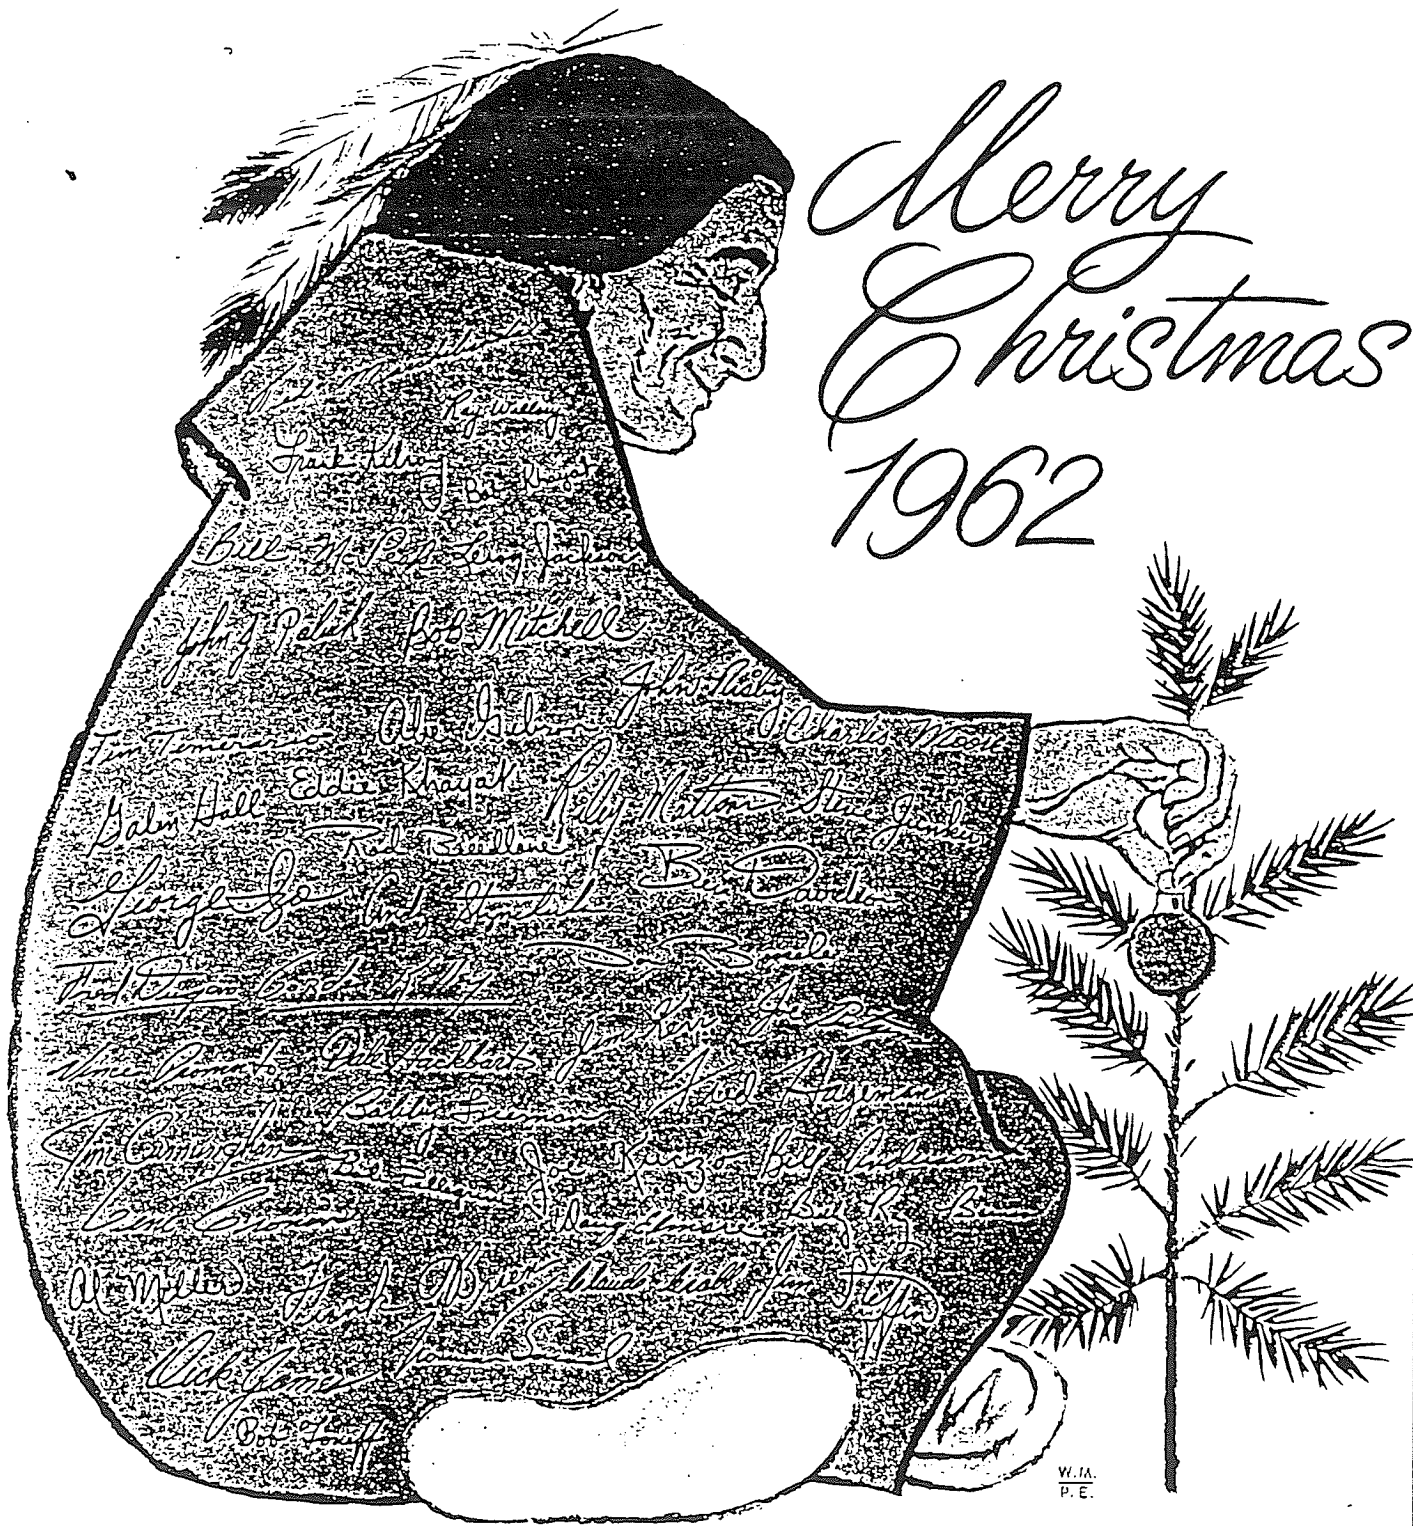

DECEMBER 2, 1962

TAX INCLUDED 50c

0001702

BLA-TTAB-01271

Merry
Christmas
1962

W. J.A.
P. E.

from the

RED SKINS

Harjo, et al. v.
Pro-Football, Inc.
Case No. 21,069
Petitioners' Ex.

Washington Redskins

1963 FOOTBALL FACTS BOOK

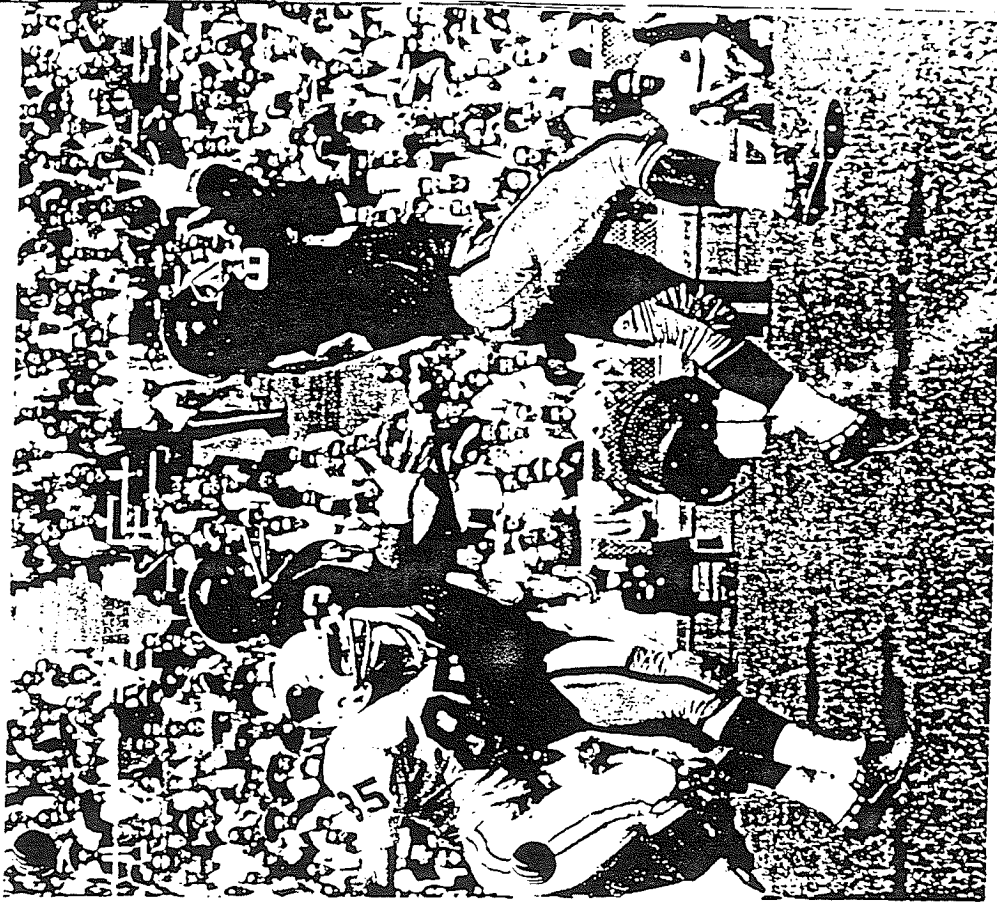

Harjo, et al. v.
Pro-Football, Inc.
Case No. 21,069
Petitioners' Ex.

29.035

001274

AMBUSH

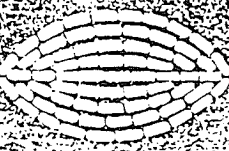

The Redskins defensive outfit ganged up on the Cardinals Tex Anderson on this play in D. C. Stadium. No. 63, intercepting the pass is linebacker Red Breedlove, the gentleman next to Anderson is linebacker Bob Pellegrini.

Page 15

001275

THE NEW COWBOYS MAGAZINE
SEPTEMBER 29, 1963
$1.00
TAX INCLUDED 50c

 cowboys

SEPTEMBER 29, 1963

Harjo, et al. v.
Pro-Football, Inc.
Case No. 21,069
Petitioners' Ex.

TAX INCLUDED 50c

29.036

0001666

BLA-TTAB-01275

THE REDSKIN

MAGAZINE FOR FOOTBALL FANS

27th Year of Publication in the Nation's Capital
Entered in Library of Congress — Card No. 62-6477

The Experts Are Looking For Help

EASTERN TITLE RACE IS A FANS DELIGHT

In the wonderful world of the Eastern Division of the National Football League this fall the only certainty is the fact that what looks down is actually up and what looks up is actually down.

All of which is another way of saying that the title race is going to be such a zany, scramble that even the Monday morning quarterbacks might have to yell for help.

Look at the carnage after two weeks of play: THE NEW YORK GIANTS—they were the odds-on favorites to win their third straight Eastern title. A great defense, great depth and Title.

Pittsburgh was rated by the pre-season coaches as a good defensive club but no offense and therefore, an also-ran in the title picture.

PITTSBURGH 31; NEW YORK 0.

Someone forgot to tell someone something. Pittsburgh which can't score, did, and against the famed Giants defense which is just plain, too tough. The only conclusion is that in New York, title and TITTLE are spelt the same way.

Cleveland—the experts fell over one another in the race to toss the famed Browns into the title ash can. Without Paul Brown, Jimmy Brown and the Browns are nothing, that was the word the experts passed around the football world.

WE GOT THE WORD, OURSELVES, BUT IT WAS JIMMY BROWN, HIMSELF, WHO REALLY GAVE US THE MESSAGE. AND IT WASN'T QUITE LIKE WHAT THE EXPERTS HAD BEEN TELLING US.

Actually, we feel about Jimmy and the Browns today, the same way the Rams feel about us. The same experts who said the Browns were dead also said that the Redskins had been on the reservation too long to act-up in the title race. AND THE RAMS BELIEVED 'EM.

New York has a Giant defensive problem; Pittsburgh has an explosive offensive; Brown is running wild and the Redskins are cutting up. And it's only the beginning.

The experts? They've formed a committee to hold an agonizing re-appraisal, while the fans cheer.

THE REDSKIN

Official Publication of the Redskins
Redskin Building, Washington, D. C.
District 7-6140

President: George P. Marshall
Vice-President: Milton W. King
Assistant to the President: C. Leo DeOrsey

DIRECTORS

George P. Marshall, Chairman
C. Leo DeOrsey Milton W. King
E. Bennett Williams Jack Kent Cooke
Gene Archer

IN THIS ISSUE...

	PAGE
On the Warpath	5
Matinee at Midfield	11
Hall of Fame	20, 21 & 24
Depth Charts	31
Redskin Roster	32
Visitors Roster	37
Other NFL Games Today	66

national football league

I
L
L
U
S
T
R
A T
E
D

0001667

BLA-TTAB-01276

MAINEE AT MIDFIELD

FEATURING

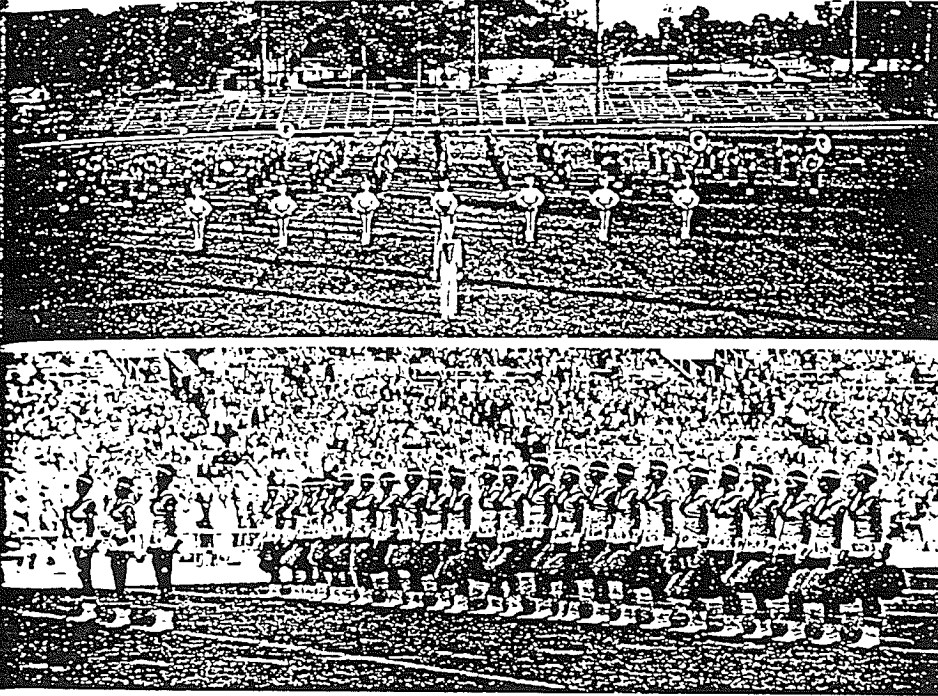

THE ALFRED I. DU PONT HIGH SCHOOL BAND, Jacksonville, Fla.

and

THE REDSKINS MARCHING BAND

THE REDSKINS BRAVES (70 voices strong)

THE REDSKINETTES

COMING ATTRACTIONS

OCTOBER 6TH

THE FLYING EAGLE BAND, Woodrow Wilson High School
Beckley, West Virginia

All shows under the supervision of
George Preston Marshall

THE REDSKINS SHOW STAFF

JOEL MARGOLIS
Producer

CHARLES CLIFF
Musical Director

GENE ARCHER
Soloist

THOMAS WRIGHT, JR.
Band Master

NOBLE BARNES
Associate Conductor

JAMES MARTIN
Arranger

RAYMOND GICKER
Personnel Director

MYER BROWDY
Wardrobe

RAY MICHAEL
Public Address

RAY RAUM
Sound

REDSKINETTE DIRECTORS

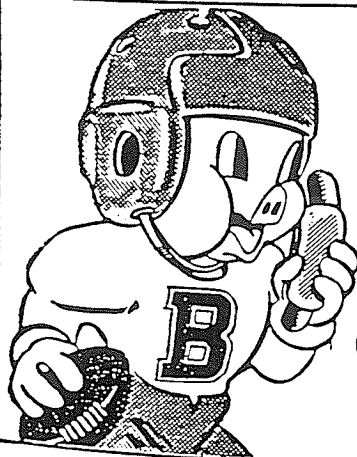

DORIS SNYDER
Executive

ANN BITTENBENDER
Choreography

MARY LOU BUCCI
Rehearsal

...

DONNA BIERLEIN
Secretary

Making the BIGGEST GAINS in Washington

BRIGGS'
ICE CREAM

BRIGGS'
HOT DOGS

Giants

OCTOBER 6, 1968

TAX INCLUDED 50c

Harjo, et al. v.
Pro-Football, Inc.
Case No. 21,069
Petitioners' Ex.

Time for a change

THERE'S NO WHAMMY LIKE A GIANT WHAMMY

It would have been extremely difficult, if not impossible, on that Sunday afternoon seven years ago to tell Redskin fans that it was anything but a perfect day. After all the Redskins had just blasted New York 33-7 at old Griffith Stadium.

But as the players were walking slowly off the field a strange thing happened. Frank Gifford, then the Giants prima-donna running back and now their aging but still talented flanker, walked over to Redskins linebacker Chuck Drazenovich and said: "Chuck, you guys had yourselves a lot of fun today but we'll be waiting for you from now on."

Recalling the incident recently, Draz said: "I laughed at the time, but man that Gifford wasn't kidding."

He wasn't. THE REDSKINS HAVEN'T DEFEATED A NEW YORK TEAM IN WASHINGTON SINCE THAT NOV. 18th AFTERNOON IN 1956. Washington did win a big one in Yankee Stadium in 1957 but since then, it's been all Giant victories except for a tie, which also occurred in New York.

For the record that's an incredible mark: 11 New York victories in 13 games against one loss and one tie. They couldn't be that good and we certainly aren't that bad.

IT'S JUST THAT OLD WHAMMY.

We don't exactly roll over and play dead against New York—we scored enough points against them last year to win half a dozen games—we just can't win. We've lost in snow storms, rain storms and on perfect days, so the weather isn't a factor. We've won the battle of statistics several times and still lost.

AND THE TIME HAS COME TO PUT AN END TO ALL THAT STUFF. Seven years is far too long a life for any ghost.

THE REDSKIN

Official Publication of the Redskins
Redskin Building, Washington, D. C.
District 7-6140

President: George P. Marshall
Vice-President: Milton W. King
Assistant to the President: C. Leo DeOrsey

DIRECTORS

George P. Marshall, Chairman
C. Leo DeOrsey Milton W. King
I. Bennett Williams Jack Kent Cooke
Gene Archer

IN THIS ISSUE...

	PAGE
On the Warpath	5
Matinee at Midfield	11
Team Leaders	48-49
Redskin Roster	32
Visitors Roster	37
Other NFL Games Today	66

Printed by KAUFMANN PRINTING CO., INC.

PRINTED BY KAUFMANN PRINTING, INC. 65-1077

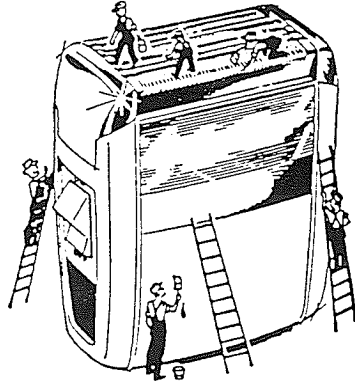

I
L
L
U
S
T
R
A T
E
D

SCHICK

the inventors of electric shaving

WILL SERVICE

Any Make ELECTRIC SHAVER

SCHICK
NORELCO
REMINGTON
RONSON
SUNBEAM

We're always glad to be of service to you—and your electric shaver. Any problem, any make . . . when it comes to shaving, come to Schick!

114 N. Howard St.
Baltimore 1, Md.

1217 'H' St., N.W.
Washington 5, D.C.

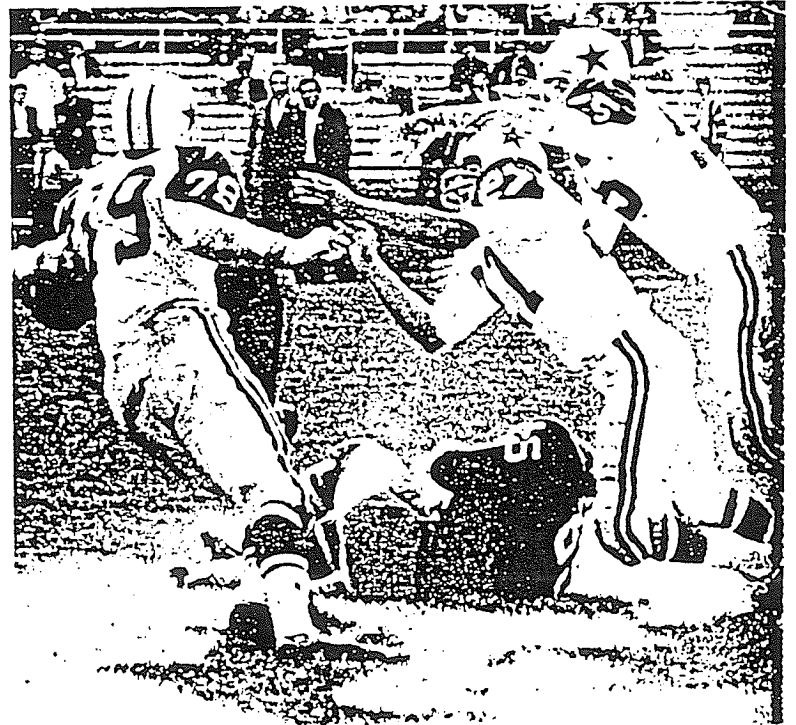

203 N. 7th St.
Richmond 19, Va.

229 S. Tryon St.
Charlotte 2, N.C.

1210 Walnut St.
Phila. 7, Pa.

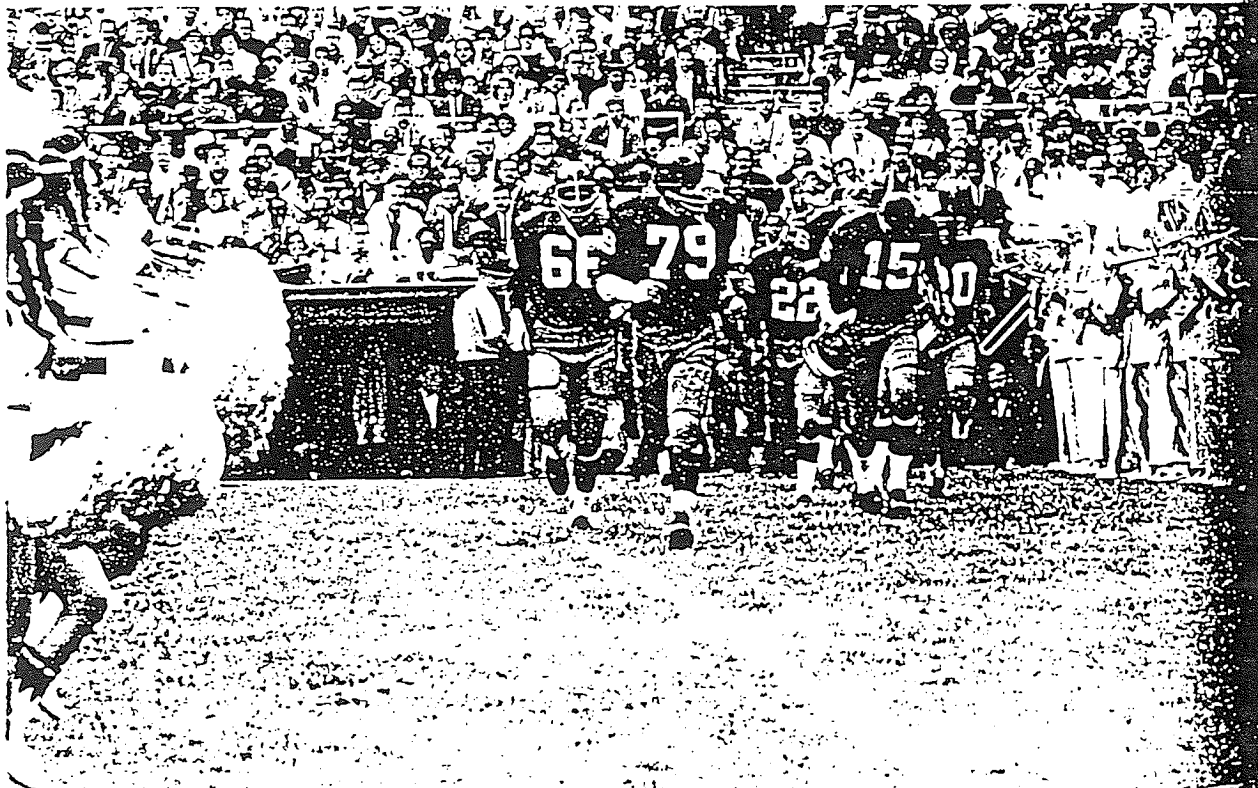

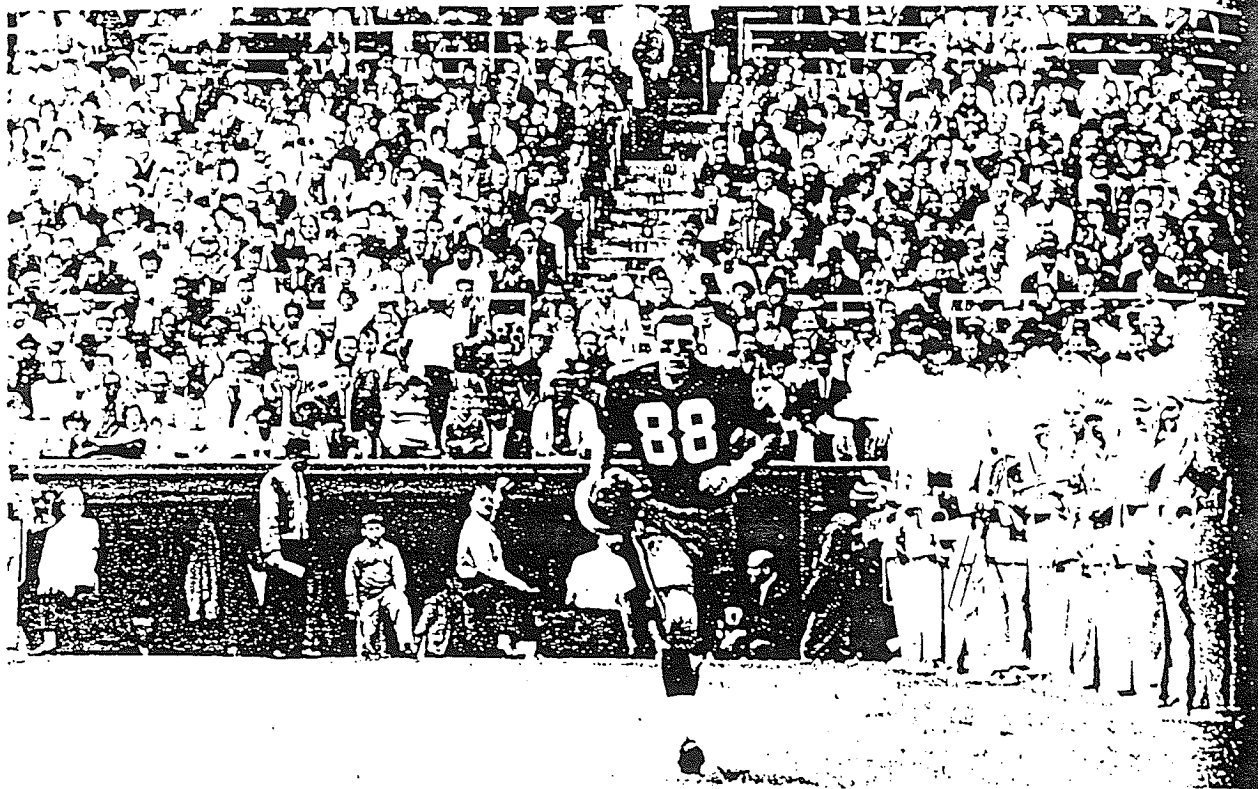

216 Greenfield Rd.
Lancaster, Pa.

MIDFIELD BALL

At times it was difficult to tell the halftime performers from the players last Sunday. In the top photo the Redskinettes dance through their regular routine while below, three Redskins look like members of a ballet group as they try to latch on to elusive Redskins halfback.

HAIL TO THE REDSKIN

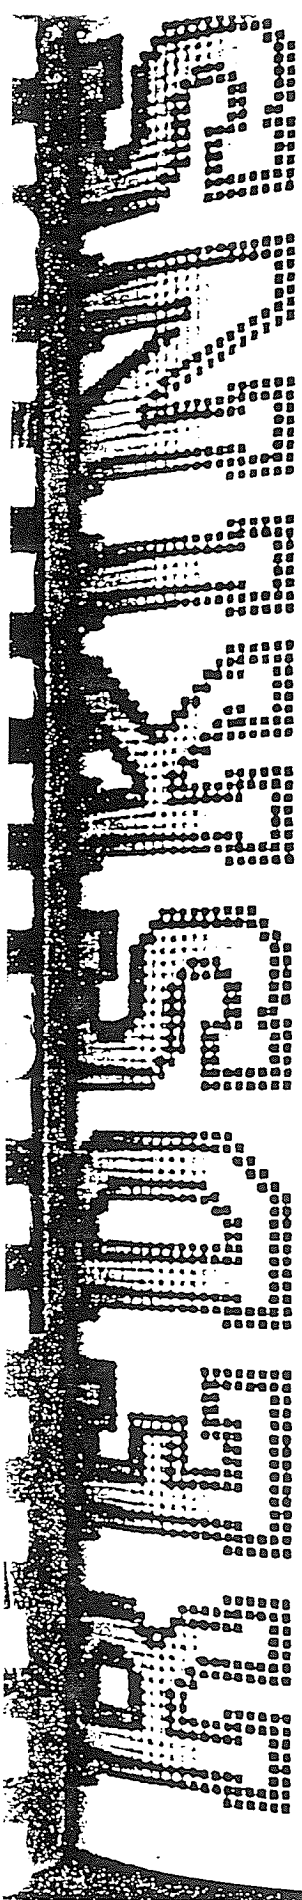

The best opening in football—the Redskins band, the Redskinettes—come up with something new this season forming a gauntlet for the of both teams. The Redskins are shown above: Top Pat Richter being introduced for the first time in his new home town; below, the Redskins team.

Page 60

0001672

BLA-TTAB-01281

OCTOBER 13, 1963

eagles

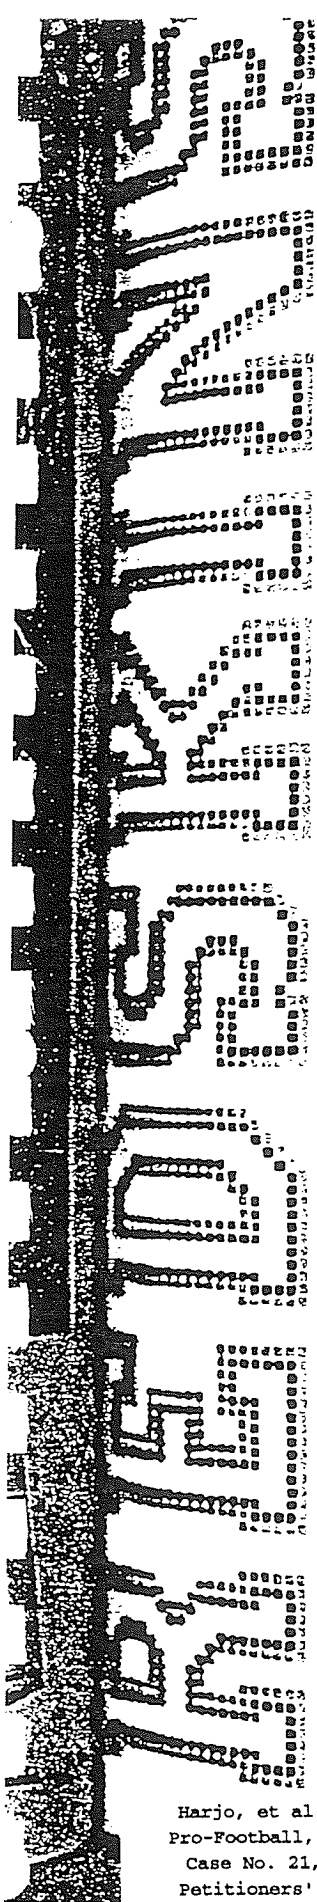

Harjo, et al. v.
Pro-Football, Inc.
Case No. 21,069
Petitioners' Ex.

TAX INCLUDED 50c

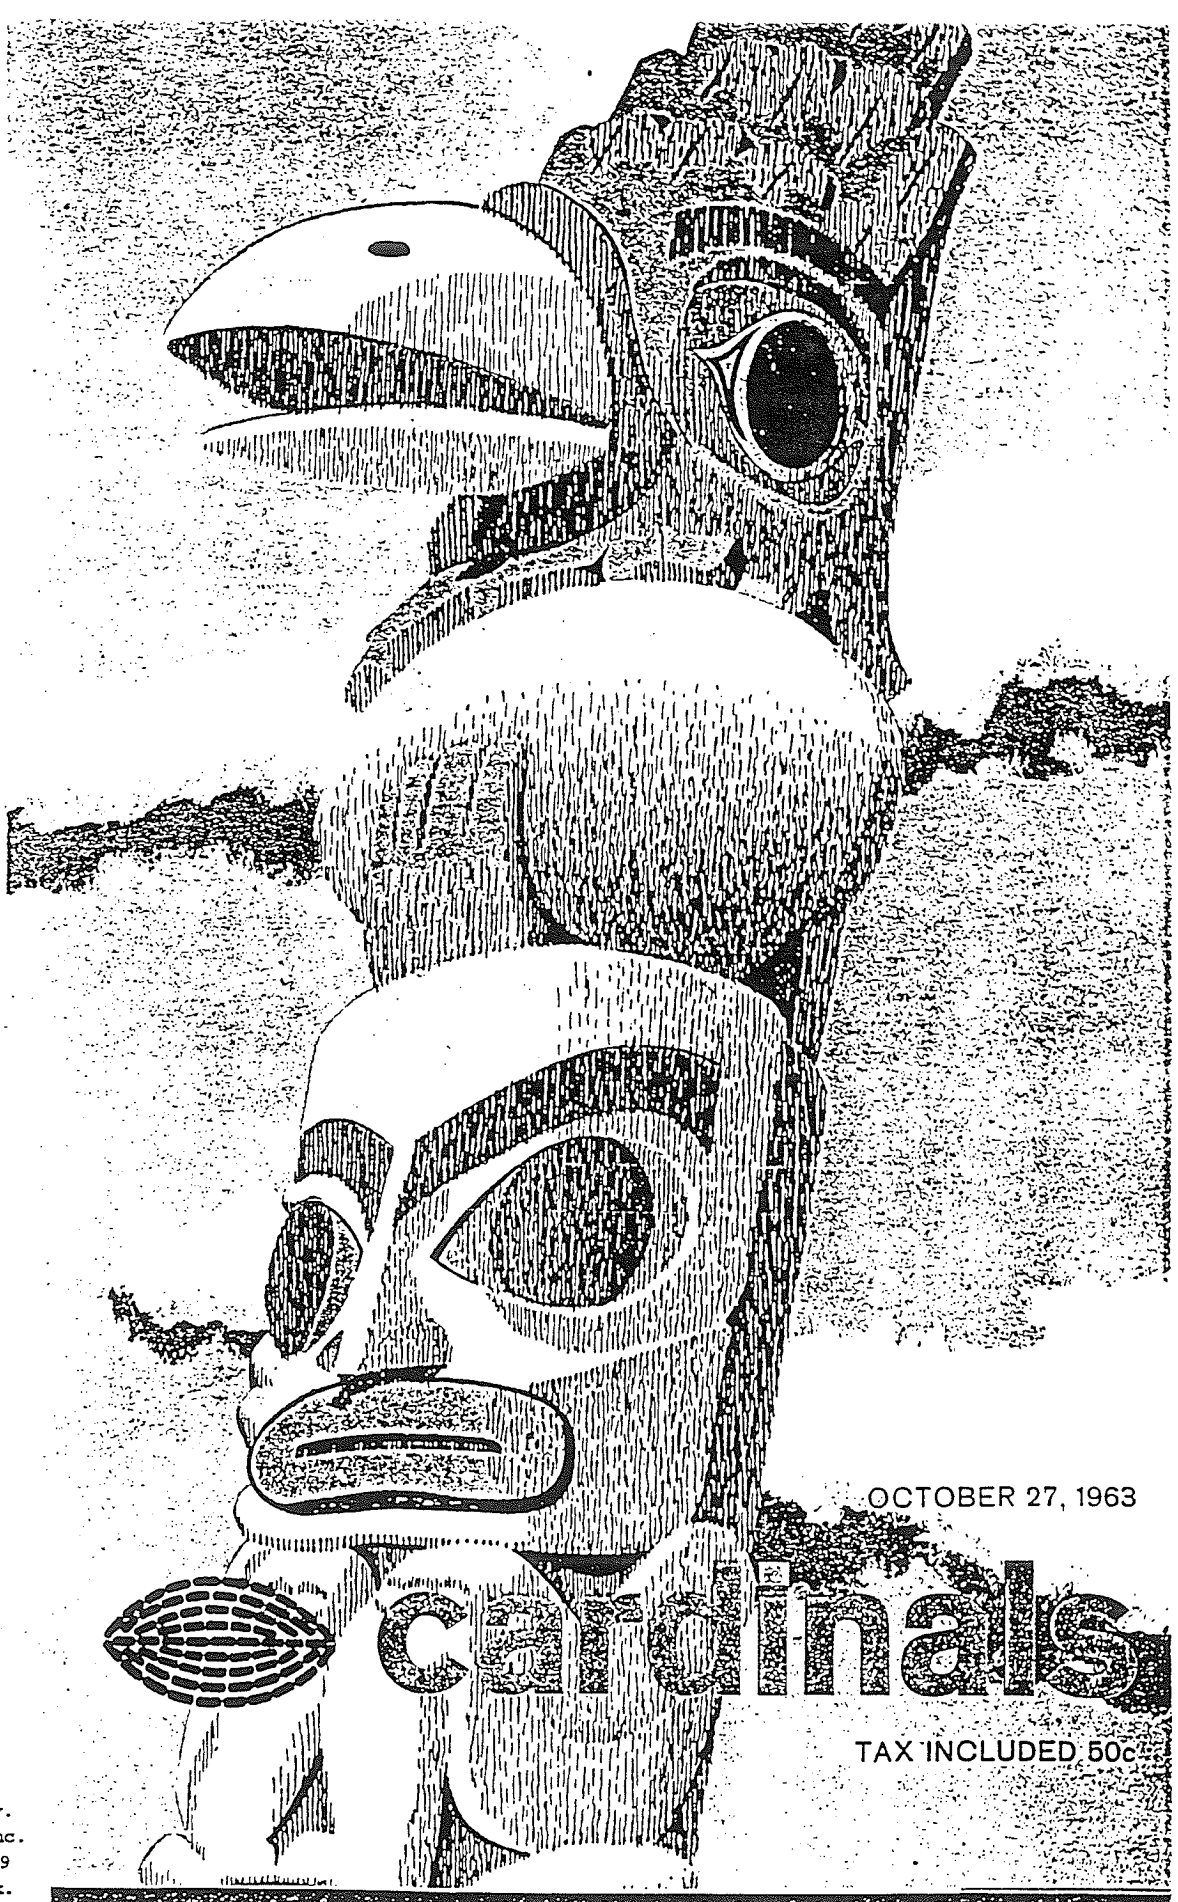

29.038

0001673

BLA-TTAB-01282

Harjo, et al. v.
Pro-Football, Inc.
Case No. 21,069
Petitioners' Ex.

OCTOBER 27, 1963

cardinals

TAX INCLUDED 50c

Only WWDC Radio broadcasts all 14 Redskin Games!
AM-1260 FM-101.1 mg.

presented for your enjoyment by

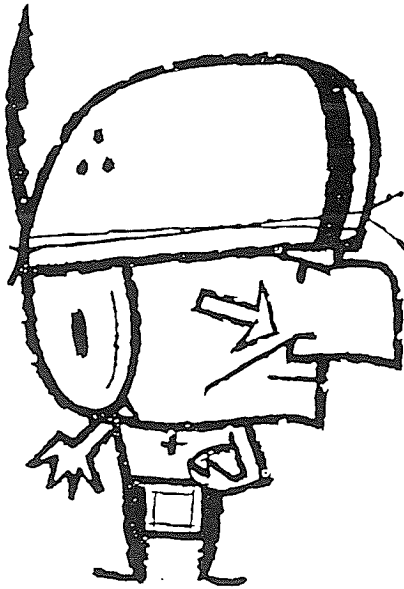

NATIONAL BEER

TOM'S CHEVROLET

OIL HEAT INSTITUTE

BRUCE HUNT

AMERICAN HOMEOWNERS INSURANCE

ARE YOU—OR DO YOU KNOW JOE REDSKIN?

"Joe Redskin" is a typical Redskin fan . . . a guy who's sat through every game . . . stuck with the 'Skins through thick and thin. WWDC Radio and the Redskin game sponsors are looking for the right person to honor as "Joe Redskin." If you know Joe, or if you think you are Joe, fill in the entry blank below!

Prizes in JOE REDSKIN CONTEST

1. Vacation trip to Nassau including plane fare and two weeks at Nassau Beach Hotel
2. $450 Bolex movie camera
3. Year's supply of National Beer from National Brewing Company
4. Two season tickets for 1964 Redskin games from Public National Bank
5. Year's supply of oil from the Oil Heat Institute
6. Complete set of Regal Cookware made of Alcoa's Duralum from Alcoa
7. Men's wardrobe from Bruce Hunt, includes suit, topcoat, sports jacket, slacks, Dobbs Hat, shoes
8. Nationally advertised auto airconditioning unit, fully installed in almost any American make car from Tom's Chevrolet
9. $100 fund of traveler's checks from Capital City Savings and Loan Association
10. $100 in car rentals from Friend Rent-A-Car
11. Year's supply of Pepsi-Cola from Pepsi Cola Bottling Company
12. Set of Goodyear tires worth $125 from Standard Pontiac
13. Tremendous gift assortment of Phillies Cigars from Bayuk Cigar Company
14. Free laundering of shirts for a year from Manhattan Laundry

The lucky winner will have breakfast with the Redskin team prior to the final home game of the season and will also be invited to the Redskin Alumni Football Dinner and Dance.

I nominate _____ to be Joe Redskin, 1963.

His address is _____